

Managing Mental Health Crisis

April 15th – 16th, 2020

8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Hosted by MMRMA

M-TEC University Center Room U-113

80 Livingston Blvd,

Gaylord, MI 49735

Program Overview:

This course is designed to provide participants with a better understanding of mental illness as it relates to law enforcement. Managing a Mental Health Crisis (MMHC) is a culmination of knowledge and skills developed by law enforcement and mental health professionals with the intention of promoting effective and high-quality responses to mental health related incidents.

Managing Mental Health Crisis is

- Designed specifically for Michigan law enforcement.
- Funded by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services
- Endorsed by the State of Michigan's Diversion Council
- MCOLES approved and meets with MCOLES recommended annual officer trainings

Presenters: Lt. Michael Marocco (Master Trainer) is the Interim Police Services Commander at the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Office and is the current Police Service Dog Unit Commander and Police Training Officer Cadre Commander.
Lisa Gentz (Master Trainer) is a mental health professional and licensed clinical social worker with a Master's Degree in Clinical/Medical Social Work from the University of Michigan.

Class Registration Cost: FREE (Registration for this participant course is covered by funds made available by the Michigan Department of Health & Human Services.)

Registration: To register, please contact jericwaddell@thecardinalgrou2.com.

Seats are limited to 30 participants.
Deadline for Registration is April 5th, 2020.

For additional information on the content of training or the concept of training teams, please contact J. Eric Waddell at jericwaddell@thecardinalgrou2.com