

Twardesky Consulting

Presents

Child Sexual Exploitation Investigation

Date Wednesday, April 22nd, 2020
Time 8:30 am to 4:30 pm
Where Delta College Police Academy
Address 1961 Delta Rd. University Center, MI 48710

This seminar focuses on the sexual exploitation of children by helping students to better understand the problem & effectively investigate these cases. Sexually motivated crimes, especially those involving children are an issue that most people prefer not to think about but unfortunately are a reality in all of our communities. Through case studies & lecture, students will gain a better understanding of child sexual exploitation & learn advanced investigative strategies.

Topics include; offender typologies, child interviews, false allegations, victimology, identifying nontraditional evidence & tactics for confronting the offender.

Registration Information:

<https://www.delta.edu/community/continuing-education/law-enforcement-training/in-service-training-professionals.html>

This class is registered with MCOLES for use of PA 302 funds.

Detective Corporal Jim Twardesky has been in law enforcement since 2002 & assigned to the City of Warren PD Special Victims Unit since 2014. He has investigated hundreds of sexual assaults & other violent crimes against children including multiple child homicides & serial sex offenders. A number of his investigations have received extensive media coverage both locally & nationally. He serves as an adjunct instructor for the Macomb Public Service Institute & has lectured about sex crimes & child abuse at colleges, conferences & police academies throughout the State of Michigan. Audiences have included Law Enforcement, CPS workers, Prosecutors, Social Workers & CAC staff.